

Web Browser Functions for Hourly Employees

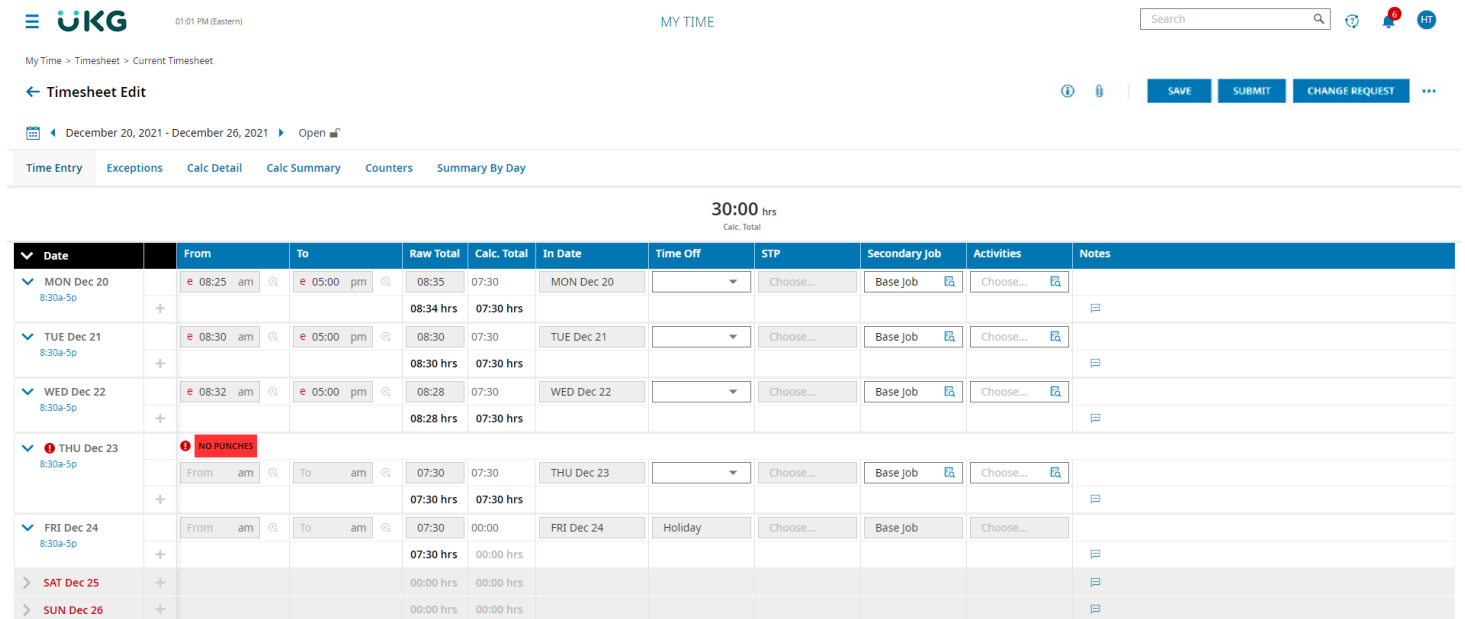

Viewing Your Timesheet

You can access and view your timesheet from the application so that you can review and make sure that the hours shown are correct.

You can update your exceptions (time off) before submitting it to your manager for approval. If you make a change, please be sure to Save first before hitting Submit.

Raw Hours from schedule are populated in the timesheet each pay period. The expectation is to clock in and out each day. You will see an exception on days where the hours were populated, but no punches were added. In this case, either a change request needs to be made, or time off request needs to be created.

Submitting a Time Off Request

The screenshot shows the Kronos Time Off Request interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the Kronos logo and the time 2:03 PM (EDT). Below that, the page title is "Time Off Request". There's a dropdown menu for "Time Off Type" currently set to "Vacation". A yellow callout bubble points to this dropdown with the text: "Select your Time Off Type and date or date range, then select 'Start Request'".

Below the dropdown, there's a section for "Accrued Balances Details" showing various time balances for "Jan 1, 2022" under the "Vacation" category. A calendar view shows dates from Monday to Sunday. A yellow callout bubble points to the "START REQUEST" button in the top right corner of the calendar area with the text: "Enter the details for your request and click Submit Request".

A modal form is open in the center, titled "TUE SEP 7". It has a "Schedule" bar at the top showing a time range from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. Below that, there are dropdowns for "Time Off Type" (set to "Vacation") and "Request Type" (with options: Full Day, Multiple Days, Partial Day (Bulk)). There's a "Comment" text area and "CANCEL" and "SUBMIT REQUEST" buttons at the bottom.

Requesting time off can be done easily from the application or mobile app.

1. On the request screen, review your time off balances to make sure that you have enough available time to take.
2. Then, select the type of time that you want to request and click Continue. Enter the date(s) and time that you want to take and click Submit Request.
3. Accrual Balances will be finalized during the week of Go-Live as the information is made up to date with the most recent payroll processing.
4. The request will go to your manager for approval. You will get an email notification telling you if your request was approved.
5. After taking time off, be sure to check your timesheet to make sure that your time off hours are shown correctly before submitting your timesheet.

Does the Time Off Request recognize Saturday and Sunday as non-working days?

A: Yes, UKG will recognize days on which you are not scheduled to work and will skip those days when awarding your time off hours. However, you should always check your timesheet to make sure that your time off hours are showing correctly.

If my time off was approved but I don't take the time, will my time off balance still be deducted?

A: If the time off hours are removed from your timesheet, your balance will not be deducted. You should always review your timesheet before submitting it to make sure that the hours reported are correct
